THE THEATRES

SMITH'S

All records for the week have gone by the board, and the business for "The Show Girl" shows a steady increase, which will bring the week out on the top of all preceding years. The house last evening was sold to the doors, and many were turned away unable to obtain seats. The same condition will undoubtedly prevail this evening. The warning has been given on numerous occasions that seats should be obtained early, to avoid disappointment, but still there were many, and there are sure to be more this evening who put it off until the last moment, and then they will regret it. There are but three more performances of the play, and if you want to enjoy a most pleasant afternoon or evening you must obtain your seats at once. Don't delay until they are all gone.

Charles E. Peck is one member of the cast who has not received the attention from the press that his work deserves. He is a clever, careful worker, and the best black face comedian who has ever been seen from among our local talent. His role is filled with excellent judgment, and is greatly appreciated by everyone who witnesses the performances. Miss Steinmetz is also deserving of extensive praise for her excellent singing. Her voice is greatly improved over last season, and she sings the soubrette role in a splendid manner.

For the opening week of the spring and summer season of vaudeville, which begins Monday, the following talent has been secured: Burke, Toulney & Co., in a clever comedy sketch, "The Birthday Party"; Zinnel & Bouffelle, comedy singing and dancing skit; the Apollo Brothers, gymnasts and champion heavy weight lifters, who have a standing offer, at every performance, of $50 to any person, amateur or professional, who will lift and carry from the stage a bag of sand, weighing over 300 pounds, in the same manner in which they do; the Three Luby Sisters, novelty singers and dancers; and George E. Alexander, the great tramp comedian. All these five acts, and they are big ones, together with three reels of absolutely "first run" motion pictures, which will change every Monday, Wednesday and Friday; will be given for that absurdly small price of admission, ten cents, afternoon or evening. In the evenings there will be just a few reserved seats at a small advance, only ten cents. Can you beat it anywhere? If you can, somebody is losing a whole lot of good money. This will be the best and strongest summer amusement Bridgeport has ever enjoyed, and for the least cost. So much for so little has never been offered before, and the only wonder is how it can be done. But it will be done, and it will be a grand success. Before next week is over the theatre will be filled to the doors at every performance. Of these, there will be one each at 7:15 and 8:30, making three a day, of the best vaudeville that can be secured. Even better bills than that for the opening week may be provided, if, as is believed will be the case, the business will warrant it. But this opening week is to be a hummer, and no mistake. Get your reserved seats for next week at any time, or make arrangements to have the same seats held for some night in every week. You can do that by applying at the box office, where your name will be

BARTENDER KILLS FORMER FIREMAN OVER DRINK

Two Other Probably Fatal Assaults and Hotel Fire Driving 100 Guests into Street, Keep New York Police Busy Today.

(Special from United Press.)

New York, May 14.—Three probably fatal assaults, and a fire in a cheap hotel which drove one hundred guests to the street, kept the local police busy during the early hours to-day. Two of the assaults were sordid crimes, the cause in one case being a dispute over three cents and the other a quarrel over a ten cent glass of whiskey. The other was caused by jealousy.

Tony Smolowitz, a Polish street, served two men known as "Lulu" and "Butts" their breakfast. "Butts" announced that it was his treat. "Lulu" called for three eggs and a cup of cocoa. "Butts" demurred, saying he was willing to pay ten cents for the eggs and two for coffee but would not pay the three extra for the cocoa. A dispute followed and when Smolowitz refused to give the cocoa for two cents one of the pair hit him on the head with a heavy coffee mug, fracturing his skull. The men escaped.

Thomas Heads, a former member of the New York volunteer fire department, went into John Griffin's saloon and called for a "big drink of whiskey." As the bottle was placed before him he grasped it and, into one Michael, the bartender, snatched an old army sword from the wall and went in pursuit. Over-taking Heads he made a swing at him and almost severed his head from his body killing him instantly. Reynolds was arrested.

Jesse Telfer, a negro, is dying in Harlem hospital from a wound in the right side which the police allege was inflicted by his wife. The woman was arrested.

A fire, caused by a curtain blowing against a lighted gas jet at Hall's Hotel on Park Row, caused a panic among 100 guests half of whom were women.

FIVE MONTHS ROMANCE WITH DAN CUPID BADLY BATTERED

(Special from United Press.)

New York, May 14.—After a five month romance, in which the chapters embracing a Christmas elopement, two marriages, a checked honeymoon over the northern United States and Canada, a fortune won by the bride, a separation, a reconciliation and another separation, Walter McCreel and his eighteen-year-old wife, Hazel, drew McCreel, are one more reconciled and little Dan Cupid, albeit badly battered, flaps his wings triumphantly over the young couple at the home of the young husband's father in Brooklyn.

This last reconciliation came after Hazel had flown from the tarty wedding feast last Wednesday night at the home of her mother and had sworn she would "never see Walter again." Walter stormed at the door of his mother-in-law's home, where he had been so long, and he went away muttering disconsolate remarks about vengeance, suicide and other horrors.

Hazel declared that she was going to have her two marriages to Walter annulled as her mother wished her to, and that Walter didn't love her any more. Last night, however, Hazel began to bemoan her fate, weepingly declaring that she was a trifle in name only. Then came sobbing inquiries as to the whereabouts of Walter. In consistent demands that she be taken to him.

"I want my husband. I must have Walter." And Walter was hurried for. Walter came hurriedly but hesitantly, and after a few sobbing preliminaries, the husband and wife kissed and made up.

Caught Looting Employee Killed

(Special from United Press.)

Philadelphia, May 14.—Caught in the act of looting a car of the Adams Express Company early to-day, Frederick Zimmerman, for 12 years an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was shot and killed by a special policeman while trying to make his escape. For several weeks the Adams Express Company has been missing hundreds of dollars' worth of groceries and perishable goods which have been stolen from their cars. Not until last night did they get a clue to the thief and the police men were demanded to watch.

CANAL LABORER TO BE PASTEURIZED

(Special from United Press.)

New York, May 14.—Charles Perryman, a negro laborer employed on the Panama Canal, arrived here to-day on the steamer Allentown from Cristobal, bound for the pasteur institute in Washington, to be treated for the bite of a mad dog.

Growing Too Old He Killed Himself

(Special from United Press.)

New York, May 14.—Feeling that he was growing too old to maintain his place among younger men in the business world, David Schiff, a real estate broker, killed himself with a gas in his boarding house this morning. He was 67 years old.

His failure is believed to have resulted from despondency because he could not put through a recent big real estate deal.

FELL IN FIT OF HYSTERIA ON STREET

Abe Merwin of Milford, a painter who has been in the employ of the Barnum & Bailey show for many years was taken with a hysterical fit this morning at the Fairfield avenue viaduct near the railroad station. The emergency ambulance removed Merwin. He recovered in a short time and was sent home.

Piano Buyers Out In Full Force

The UNUSUAL Character of the BIG PIANO SALE

AT THE WISSNER PIANO STORE

Creates An Interest Without Parallel

All Week the Big Store Was Filled With Buyers and Prospective Buyers Who Were Attracted by the Unusual and Extraordinary Nature of This Sale.

Never before in Bridgeport has a Piano Sale attracted such widespread publicity. From the moment our doors opened after the first announcement, the store has been the scene of unheard of piano buying. Everyone wanted to know how it is possible to sell new and nearly new pianos at such low prices and on such easy terms as we are quoting. Anyone who is at all thinking about buying a piano will be doing themselves an injustice by not calling at our warerooms. This is a real sale. Every piano advertised is on hand. And they are honest values, too. Just put a ten-dollar bill or more in your pocket and come in to see what we have. Perhaps you will find the very piano you have had in your mind's eye.
